Course snapshot

The Certificate IV in Education Support will qualify you as a teacher aide, focusing on special needs students.

You will work alongside and support teachers in special schools as well as children with learning difficulties at public schools, independent schools and through community education.

A typical day could include preparing, coordinating, overseeing and managing lesson material and special needs learning programs, as well as assisting disabled children one-on-one and in group learning situations.

COURSE LENGTH

One day per week for 34 weeks or complete one subject per month online over 17 months

100 hours of work placement

LOCATIONS

You can complete the course at any of our campuses:

- > Marsden
- > Geebung
- > Helensvale

CLASSES

Our classes are small (15 – 22 students) so that you get all the support you need. Our qualified trainers have years of industry experience as teachers and teacher aids and make learning interesting and fun.

Our trainers understand that everyone learns differently – that's why they tailor classes to suit individual students. We believe the best way to learn is through practical, hands-on experience, that's why you'll get the opportunity to undertake work experience at a school.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Did you know teacher aids are in high demand? We may also interview students during the course for volunteer opportunities in the same facility they will likely be employed.

Not entirely sure what you want to do with your career? That's okay, the Certificate IV in Education Support will get you qualified for a range of jobs.

Choose the learning style that works best for you. Come into the classroom and learn face to face, or choose to study online.

Occupational titles include:
